FROM BROTHERS FOUNDATION FUNDS

MAY 2017

MARKETS AND THE ECONOMY

The S&P 500 Index in April offered a slight improvement compared with its March performance, returning 1 percent. The preliminary estimate for first quarter GDP growth is an annual rate of 0.7 percent, up 1.9 percent from a year ago. Business investment in equipment and structures were the largest positive contributions; slower growth in inventories was the largest drag on GDP. The unemployment rate dropped to 4.5 percent in March from 4.7 percent in February. The largest gain was for professional and business services; the largest drop was for retail. The Consumer Price Index rose 0.1 percent in March, up 2.4 percent from a year ago. Energy prices fell 3.2 percent in March as gasoline prices fell 6.2 percent; food prices rose 0.3 percent. The bond market, as measured by the Bloomberg Barclays Government/Credit Bond Index, rose 0.8 percent in April.

Easy access to credit along with infrastructure spending and a booming property market fueled China's GDP, which grew at an annualized rate of 6.9 percent in the first quarter, a tick up from 6.8 percent in the previous quarter and ahead of the annual target of 6.5 percent. Manufacturing in China during April slowed but remained in expansionary territory from the previous month. The ECB held steady on its current monetary stimulus, opting to make no changes in its key lending rates or bond-purchase program. The Eurozone unemployment rate remained unchanged at 9.5 percent in March. Eurozone consumer prices rose 1.5 percent in March from a year earlier; ECB target is just below 2 percent. India's Central Bank left its main lending rate unchanged at 6.25 percent and continues to monitor inflation for the second half of this fiscal year. International equities, as measured by the MSCI EAFE Index, rose 2.5 percent in April.

ANNUAL LISTS OF PUBLICLY TRADED DEPARTMENT OF DEFENSE CONTRACTORS RELEASED

Each year, as part of its Brethren Values Investing initiatives, Brethren Foundation Funds commissions two lists of companies that earned significant revenue from U.S. military operations in the government's most recently completed fiscal year. One list identifies the top 25 publicly traded defense contractors, based on the size of contracts awarded by the Department of Defense. Leidos Holdings, Oshkosh, and Orbital ATK are new to the 2017 top 25 list, and Hewlett-Packard, Royal Dutch Shell, and URS dropped off the list. The other list includes all publicly traded companies with market capitalization of more than $200 million that generated more than 10 percent of their revenue from Department of Defense contracts (38 additional companies).

The lists produced for 2017 were adopted by the BFFI Board during its April meeting. The firms on the lists will be screened from BFFI's self-managed investment portfolios in 2017, as directed by BFFI's Investment Guidelines, as will firms that receive more than 10 percent of their revenue from abortion, alcohol, firearms and other weapons, gambling, pornography, or tobacco. Companies that are egregious violators of environmental regulations or human rights are also screened from BFFI's portfolios. In addition to screening these companies out of its investments, BFFI will not knowingly use the services of any DOD list company or other company in violation of BVI guidelines as listed in BFFI's Investment Guidelines in 2017.

Copies of these two lists are available upon request or at cobbt.org/screening.
